A Message From The Pastor

Greetings in Christ's Holy Name,

As I have been busy with childcare and burdens due to illness, I have adapted an article from the Rev. Brent Keller of Peace Lutheran Church Alcester, SD.

Christ's peace be with you all, Pastor Porter

For churches [like ours] that use the historic one-year lectionary (cycle of readings), [Epiphany is passing, and we will soon] celebrate our Lord's Transfiguration. [We now move into a time given to preparation for the celebration of our Lord's Resurrection.]

We do this in stages: Pre-Lent, Lent, and the Passion. On Septuagesima Sunday, we enter into Pre-Lent (nicknamed the 'gesima' Sundays for the Latin titles of the Sundays). The season begins with an emphasis on the generosity of the Kingdom of God and the need to be at work. For churches using the three year lectionary, Epiphany lasts a few more weeks. When Lent properly arrives, all of the churches will be on the same calendar again.

In the early church, catechumens (learners) were baptized on Easter, and Lent was a sort of final and intense preparation. And so, the Sundays before Lent aim to equip the students for Easter and to remind the baptized of what is to come. The Epistle texts will present the Christian life as a race, as a contest that requires constant self-discipline and self-control, as a demanding life filled with labor and suffering. In a few weeks, Lent will teach that the Christian life is selfless and motivated only by the love of God and neighbor. Our Gospel texts speak of God's call for us to be laborers, of the education and training in God's 'school of life,' of the enlightenment of God's rich grace upon all who seek it. Preparation (Pre-Lent) for a period of preparation (Lent) may sound redundant or excessive, but I am of the opinion that a fallen sinner like myself needs a lot of preparation. A Preparation, yes: So that we may "run the race that is before us" as Christians pressing on toward the promised land, where Christ our Lord is leading.

The Olympic games were centuries old when St. Paul wrote his first letter to the Corinthians. That said, they were a much different event then than they are now. What isn't different, however, is the effort put in. And Paul knows it. We each have a race to run, and none of us knows how long it will last. Therefore, continual training is required - why self-discipline and focus are paramount. While Lent may also be thought of as intensification of our spiritual battle with the forces of the fallen world, it is chiefly a time of preparation, repentance, and grace. It is a time to learn to hold to Jesus as the pioneer and perfector or our salvation, as the one who has so wonderfully held forth against the devil and the world. It is a time to practice the virtues and graces that he has won for us by his triumph over sin, death, and the devil.

The Epiphanytide season runs from January 5th through either Shrove Tuesday, or Septuagesima Sunday (the 9th Sunday before Easter). February 2nd is the Festival of Candlemas. Also known as Hypapante (Meeting, in reference to Christ's meeting with Simeon), Hromnice, or The Presentation of the Lord. Candlemas is one of several festivals within the Epiphanytide season.

This Festival commemorates the day Mary presented herself in the temple for purification and to present Jesus to God as her first born (Luke 2:22-38). Leviticus chapter 12 outlines how women are considered "Unclean" after the birth of a child. If it's a boy, they're unclean for 7 days, on the 8th day, the boy is circumcised, and 33 days after that, she has to present herself in the temple with a lamb as a burnt offering, and a pigeon or dove as a sin offering. If a daughter is born, the woman is unclean for 2 weeks, then she waits another 66 days to be purified from her bleeding.

Christmas decorations are either taken down on Epiphany, or on Candlemas. In many Christian traditions, people bring candles to the church to be blessed, representing that Christ is the light of the world.

A part of "Ordinary time" in the liturgical year, Epiphanytide contains the Feast of The 12 Kings, the Baptism of our Lord, the Feast of the conversion of St Paul, Candlemas, and Shrove Tuesday.

February 2nd is the Festival of Candlemas. Also known as Hypapante (Meeting, in reference to Christ's meeting with Simeon), Hromnice, or The Presentation of the Lord. Candlemas is one of several festivals within the Epiphanytide season.
